

Unique Office Spaces in the Heart of Birmingham

The Arch

Owned by The Bond Company, The Arch is based on Floodgate Street in Digbeth, and provides a mini oasis within the city.

Comprised exclusively of office units there is a strong community of businesses here ranging from recruitment and education services, to marketing companies and social enterprises. We pride ourselves on supporting a variety of businesses whether they are just starting up or already well-established.

All of our offices are self-contained, with their own kitchenettes and WC facilities; and they all overlook the central courtyard that is maintained by our on-site caretaker.

If you would like to see our available units for yourself, just give us a call.
